

Testing the Water (Ethanol Producer Magazine)

Ethanol Producer Magazine, www.ethanolproducer.com (May 2008): "This just happened last year" it's very new, says Dautzenberg, a San Diego-based consultant. "How is it possible everyone missed this point?" Dautzenberg is retained as a consultant by the Netherlands-based Process Design Center Inc. What Dautzenberg is talking about is a new understanding of hydrous ethanol's relationship to gas and ambient moisture.....(view the full article)
