

Bring Me Water! (Minds in Motion)

www.mindsinmotion.net (May 2009):Â Could 2009 be the year that hydrous ethanol finally makes a big splash? There's a certainly a head of steam (two water puns already, and we're only in the second line!) building up behind the innovative research â€“ including positive test results â€“ being undertaken by HE Blends, the Dutch R&D company behind the pioneering technology, and its various independent research partners.....
